Chairman's Report

I am pleased to present the Sigma Healthcare Limited Annual Review for the financial year ended 31 January 2023, my first as Chairman.

This has been another year of significant transformation and renewal for Sigma and our team

The most impactful challenge we faced was the sad and sudden passing of our former Chairman, Mr Ray Gunston, in July. Ray was renowned for his incredible work ethic and strong personal values, and he was an enormous influence and contributor not only to Sigma and our people, but across the broader community. Ray has left a strong legacy. He also led the recruitment of our new CEO, Vikesh Ramsunder, which has set the path for the future of Sigma.

Since joining Sigma at the start of the financial year, Vikesh has made major advancements to stabilise the business from the extensive change program, reset the business strategy, begin simplifying our operations, focus on delivering customer service excellence, and strengthening our leadership team. We still have much progress to make. However, the sustainability of our core operations over the last 12 months has significantly improved and strengthened our ability to pursue our strategy confidently.

Our updated strategy was endorsed by the Board and announced at our half year results in September 2022. The details are outlined in the CEO Report. At its core is a clear drive to utilise latent capacity by better leveraging the world class infrastructure and systems that we now have available to us.

Financial Performance

For the full year, Sigma has delivered:

- Revenue up 6.2% to $3,660.2m
- Earnings Before Interest and Tax (EBIT) up 733.2% to $19.3m
- NPAT of $1.8m
- Dividend Per Share of $0.01 paid in respect of FY23

Whilst the NPAT is not where we would like it to be, it is an important marker as we emerge from this period of transformation and renewal. The NPAT result was delivered after absorbing the financial costs and impacts of several issues, including the implementation of our Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) solution and bringing to account the impact of correcting historical operational work practices identified through the ERP implementation.

The ERP implementation was a business wide end-to-end project to replace outdated and unsupported technology, which regrettably led to significant challenges and disruption for our business and our customers. With the ERP in place and stabilised, it has enabled us to implement more rigorous processes and practices across the business, including stock control and delegations of authority, to improve governance moving forward.

With these challenges largely behind us, we can now actively pursue opportunities to leverage the capacity and capability we have created to deliver customer service excellence and ultimately enhance shareholder returns.

This emergence is beginning to be reflected in the share price, which was up 36% for the 12-months to 31 January 2023.

Governance and renewal

As we evolve our business, we have also taken the opportunity to strengthen the expertise and skillsets within the Board to govern the business moving forward. Whilst the appointments were made after the end of the 2023 financial year, they are an important step in our overall renewal process.

Neville Mitchell was appointed as a Non-Executive Director on 2 February 2023 and brings strong financial experience and expertise. Neville will assume the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee from April 2023. Annette Carey also commences as a Non-Executive Director from 1 April 2023. Annette brings exceptional transport, supply chain and logistics expertise that will be invaluable for Sigma moving forward.

Meanwhile, David Manuel has decided not to stand for election at our upcoming AGM. David is an active community pharmacist and his industry knowledge and experience have been of enormous benefit to the Board and management since joining in October 2009. We will continue to work with David to ensure his knowledge is not lost to Sigma.

In addition to the changes at a Board level, Vikesh has assembled a new leadership team that has tirelessly and systematically worked through the issues over the last 12-months to restore service levels, improve reliability and rebuild trust for customers. Significant progress has been made, and for driving the future success of Sigma.

Sustainability

As we continue to execute our strategy and seek opportunities to grow the business, we also maintain a strong focus on the sustainability of our operations.

Vikesh and this leadership team are critical

Social dividend is a key aspect of our business. Our renewed infrastructure is designed and built to deliver essential medicines to those who need them in every part of Australia, playing an essential role in delivering the Government's National Medicines Policy objective.

We have released our third Sustainability Report, outlining several areas in which we have progressed over the last year. This includes our gender diversity at all levels of the business, cyber security initiatives, an increase in the level of renewable energy as a percentage of total energy consumption, and in providing a safe work place for our team members, which has again contributed to a continued reduction in Lost Time Injury Frequency rate. We have also outlined our pathway towards carbon neutrality in our operations.

Sigma's Sustainability report is available on our website: investorcentre. sigmahealthcare.com.au/corporate-sustainability

We now have world class Distribution Centres to provide the best service possible. We have world class technology solutions to provide the best data analytics and insights we need to run our business better. However, at the heart of Sigma's success is our people.

Our team have proven incredibly resilient as we renewed, restructured and prepared the business for the future. They have experienced team members departing and felt the effects of the impact on our service levels whilst we stabilised our systems. To all team members, I thank you for your commitment to Sigma, your resilience and focus on delivering our goals.

I also thank our loyal customers. We know Sigma has been challenging to deal with as we worked through the last 12-months. Importantly, we have emerged from this period in a strong position with everything we need to deliver exceptional customer service to you.

Finally, to our shareholders, I thank you for your patience. With the renewal now complete, we are steadfastly focused on delivering.

Michael Sammells

Chairman

Over the years ahead, the opportunity is to extract value by optimising our infrastructure by driving efficiencies in our operations, growing volume throughput, and leveraging available capacity through targeted growth opportunities.

CEO's Report

Having commenced with Sigma at the start of this financial year, I am now in a far more informed position on the functioning of the Australian market and the Sigma Healthcare business. I have focused my attention this year on concluding the infrastructure rebuild phase, driving the improvement in our operational performance, and renewing our strategy to ensure we have a sustainable business. Pleasingly, the operational improvement has been significant and the business, whilst having endured a far more challenging period than anticipated. is now on a much stronger foundation to incrementally deliver improved financial outcomes as we implement our strategy over the next coming years.

Some of the progress made during the year, which I will reflect on in this report, includes:

- Simplifying our business model
- Stabilising our new ERP system
- Improving our operational performance
- Largely finalised our DC infrastructure investment phase
- Renewed our leadership team
- Outlining our revised strategy, including consolidation of our brands
- Reduced our net debt
- Returned to profit.

It has been a significant period of necessary change to prepare the business for our growth phase.

Infrastructure

Starting with our extended period of upgrades to our infrastructure and systems – this phase is now behind us.

Over the last six years Sigma has largely renewed its entire physical infrastructure and transitioned to a new cloud-based technology ERP solution. Such large-scale transformation unfortunately created challenges and disruption internally for our team, as well as for our suppliers and customers. This phase is now concluded, and Sigma has world-class infrastructure and technology solutions that will be key enablers to deliver service excellence to our customers.

Operational Performance

A consequence of the changes was that our operational performance has been a tale of two halves.

The first six months of the financial year focused on stabilising our ERP systems and implementing critical measurements across the business to drive performance. Additional costs were incurred in the first half to support our logistics teams and to help fast-track the improvement needed to reach acceptable performance levels.

Our focus in the second six months of the year firmly shifted to optimising the investments already made and enhancing our service levels utilising the improved capabilities available to us. Pleasingly, we have seen our Delivery in Full (DIF) measure, a critical focus for customers, reach 98% and on time deliveries get to almost 100%, levels better than they were prior to our ERP implementation.

Over the years ahead, the opportunity is to extract value by optimising our infrastructure by driving efficiencies in our operations, growing volume throughput, and leveraging available capacity through targeted growth opportunities.

Renewal

At the same time as finalising our infrastructure build, we have also evolved our strategy, updated our corporate values, and renewed our leadership team.

Our Strategy is being guided by six overarching principles:

- 1. Grow scale and profitable market share in the wholesale business
- 2. Deliver best in class supply chain customer service
- 3. Execute a sustainable franchise brand growth strategy via Amcal and Discount Drug Stores
- 4. Diversify our income streams through expansion into health, beauty and wellness categories
- 5. Create a pipeline of talented employees to support sustainable growth
- 6. Ensure robust environmental, social and governance practices.

Whilst progress is being made in all areas, it won't be delivered concurrently. As outlined above, the infrastructure provides the scalable platform for us to deliver profitable wholesale sales and best in class customer service.

Our brand strategy announced in September 2022, will focus on Amcal, which has built strong brand trust and loyalty earned from over 85 years in operation, and Discount Drug Stores, with a strong value and service proposition.

Whilst this strategy may be disruptive short term, building scale in two brands will enable Sigma to better support the brands and drive foot traffic by engaging with customers, suppliers and pharmacists. Moving forward, it will also help underpin our expansion into health, beauty and wellness categories, including an expanded private and exclusive label product offering, which is an important part of our longer-term strategy.

For pharmacists who do not want a brand, we have also consolidated our independent pharmacy offerings under the PriceSave initiative, which has over 400 active members after being launched in February 2023.

To support our implementation plans we have made major organisational changes during the year with the aim of strengthening our leadership and functional expertise across the organisation. This includes injecting new team members to enhance the ability and experience to execute our plans and support sustainable growth moving forward.

Shareholder focus

Returns to shareholders is a major focus for myself, management, and the Board. We have made significant operational improvements this financial year in line with our 24-month turnaround plan. However, the financial performance is not yet where it needs to be and will continue to improve with the effective implementation of the remainder of our strategy. Heading into the 2024 financial year my focus will remain on cost efficiency, strengthening the balance sheet and investing in strengthening the Amcal and DDS brands to drive growth.

Earnings Before Interest and Tax (EBIT) for the year was $19.3 million, up 733.2% on the prior year.

Having made a Net Loss After Tax in the previous financial year of $7.2 million, the actions we have taken are beginning to make a difference, with the business reporting a Net Profit After Tax of $1.8 million in the current fiscal year. Importantly, momentum is beginning to build from a more stable and sustainable business operating model.

A critical focus for us this year has been to ensure the efficient management of working capital. This has resulted in improvement across inventory management, debtor days and creditor days. Ultimately, it has resulted in Net Debt at year end reducing to $67.0 million from $149.2 million last financial year end, a pleasing outcome in an environment of rising interest rates.

Finally, Sigma has a long and proud history that spans over 110 years supporting pharmacy and the community. We now have world class infrastructure, enhanced capability, and available capacity to pursue our growth ambitions. The largest challenge facing the business now is to earn back the trust and confidence of our stakeholders.

In closing, I would like to thank our customers who stuck by us through these significant changes – we understand your trust in Sigma was tested and we truly appreciate your loyalty to the organisation. I thank our team members for their resilience, commitment, and support through what was a challenging year. I would also like to thank the Board for their ongoing support.

Finally, to our shareholders, we have rebuilt our infrastructure, reset the business and re-energised our teams. It provides the platform we need to sustainably execute our strategy, to grow Sigma over the long term.

Wholesale Sales

It has been a challenging period for our wholesale sales team following two years of COVID impacts and our system disruption. During the year, we have restructured our team and upgraded our customer ordering platform to make Sigma easier to do business with. Through this, we have delivered a 2.2% increase in wholesale sales to community pharmacy. The major contributors to this result included:

- The ERP implementation issues encountered early in the year had a negative impact on customer trust and confidence in Sigma. This has lead to a loss of market share of around 2%.
- Our sales performance in the first half of the year benefited from the sale of Rapid Antigen Test kits. The second half benefited from sales of high value COVID anti-viral treatment.
- Medical Industries Australia (MIA), our medical equipment and consumables business, previously operated separately to wholesale. During the year, we amalgamated the MIA business into Sigma, essentially treating it as another product category, which will open sales channels and opportunities moving forward.
- Wholesale sales to hospitals reached $364 million up 11.3% over previous year.

With our systems now stabilised and operational performance significantly improved, we are now confident in our ability to win back the trust and confidence of customers, and to actively pursue growth. January 2023 data has shown positive signs, with Sigma growing sales at a rate well above average market growth rates.

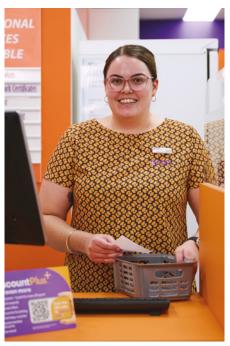

Retail brands

In September 2022, we announced our strategy to consolidate our retail pharmacy focus on supporting two brands – Amcal and Discount Drug Stores with a simplified service model that delivers value to the end consumer. Following this announcement, we have made the following progress:

- Amcal We declared our intention to merge the Guardian brand with Amcal, whilst retaining the DNA of Guardian. The Amcal and Guardian brands have been strongly aligned for many years and have operated under an Amcal Guardian National Council, supporting the brand direction for members. This brand consolidation is progressing to plan and is on target to achieve our conversion targets. Under the guidance of David Preston, who leads the Amcal and Guardian teams as the Head of Franchise Brands, we have redefined the Amcal vision, mission and customer value proposition.
- Discount Drug Stores We have appointed a new Head of DDS to engage with members, drive the DDS brand proposition, and focus on growing member numbers.
- PriceSave In February 2023, we launched our new independent pharmacy offer. PriceSave offers independent-minded pharmacy owners with strong wholesale trading terms, retail buying power, core support tools to streamline operational efficiencies and the flexibility to choose optional modules.

The retail brand strategy will be a key enabler of our strategy to grow our market presence and private and exclusive label penetration.

Amcal rated as Best Pharmacy Brand in Finder Awards

The Finder Retail Awards recognise favourite brands to guide millions world-wide in making a decision. For the pharmacy category, Australians rated pharmacies they had shopped at on four metrics: customer service, value for money, range of products, and overall.

Not only was Amcal recommended by 94% of surveyed Aussies, it was rated the highest of any other brand for the customer service and value for money category achieving a score of 4.7/5 and 4.4/5 respectively.

A big thank you to our high-performing and passionate pharmacy teams.

DDS won the Roy Morgan Customer Satisfaction Award for Chemist/ Pharmacy of the Year

Discount Drug Stores won the 2021 Roy Morgan Customer Satisfaction Award for Chemist/Pharmacy of the Year.

Customer satisfaction ratings are collected from Roy Morgan's survey of approximately 60,000 Australians each year and is the world's largest ongoing single source survey. DDS achieved the highest number of months in 2021 with a number one ranking.

Congratulations to our dedicated pharmacy teams

Merchandise and Marketing

Consistent with our franchise brand strategy, we have implemented a category focused merchandise operating model, which has required the consolidation of our merchandise team in our Melbourne Support Centre. This will support the strategic integration of brands to create, deliver and communicate value to our customers.

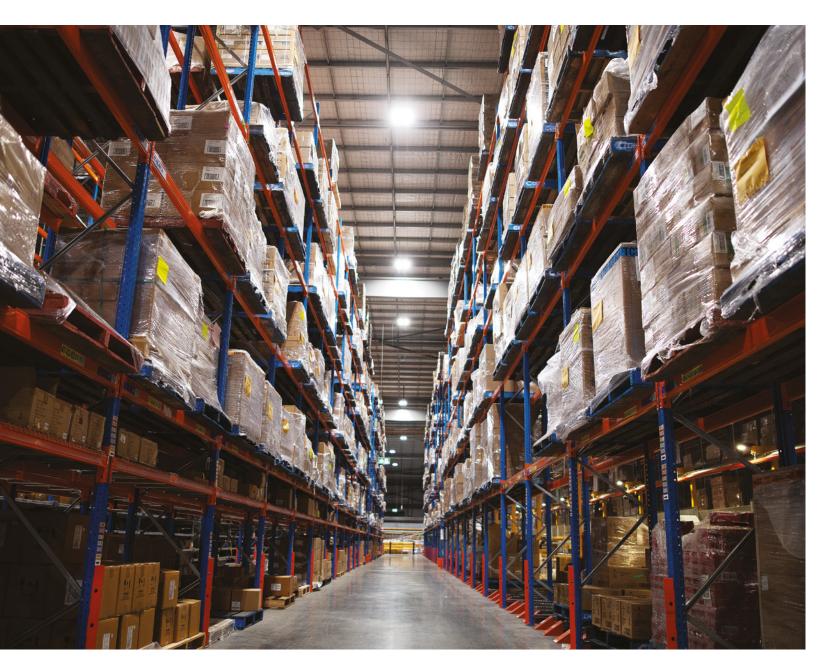

Each Category team is now responsible for the full end-to-end product decisions whilst delivering a sales and profit benefit for Sigma and our pharmacy customers. The new operating model delivers a more efficient structure, an improved retail focus and incorporates Private Label in all aspects of planning and execution.

We are currently implementing effective processes to ensure timely delivery of new product development and innovation, conducting a sales and margin review at a category and customer level, and improving the management and efficiency of our inventory.

A key focus area for us is to deliver growth in private label and exclusive brands. To fast-track this, the product development and sourcing team is expanding, with a proven track record of local and global sourcing expertise. This increased focus is supported across all functional areas - from increased share of shelf (space planning) to increased marketing support, and sales targets set for the Sales teams.

Our people are key enablers, and we are investing in talented employees across all elements of the Merchandise team to help drive the execution of our strategy.

Logistics

In November 2022 we successfully migrated to our new, purpose-built distribution centre in Hobart and completed the extension to our Melbourne Distribution Centre, finalising the major infrastructure investment program which commenced in 2017. Our automated, temperature-controlled distribution centres in all states and territories of Australia are world-class, with capacity to drive our business growth well into the future.

Throughout the 2023 financial year, the Logistics team have been intensely focused on improving operational performance with great success. Productivity, Delivery in Full and Delivery On-Time metrics have all improved significantly and are at levels better than was achieved prior to our ERP replacement program.

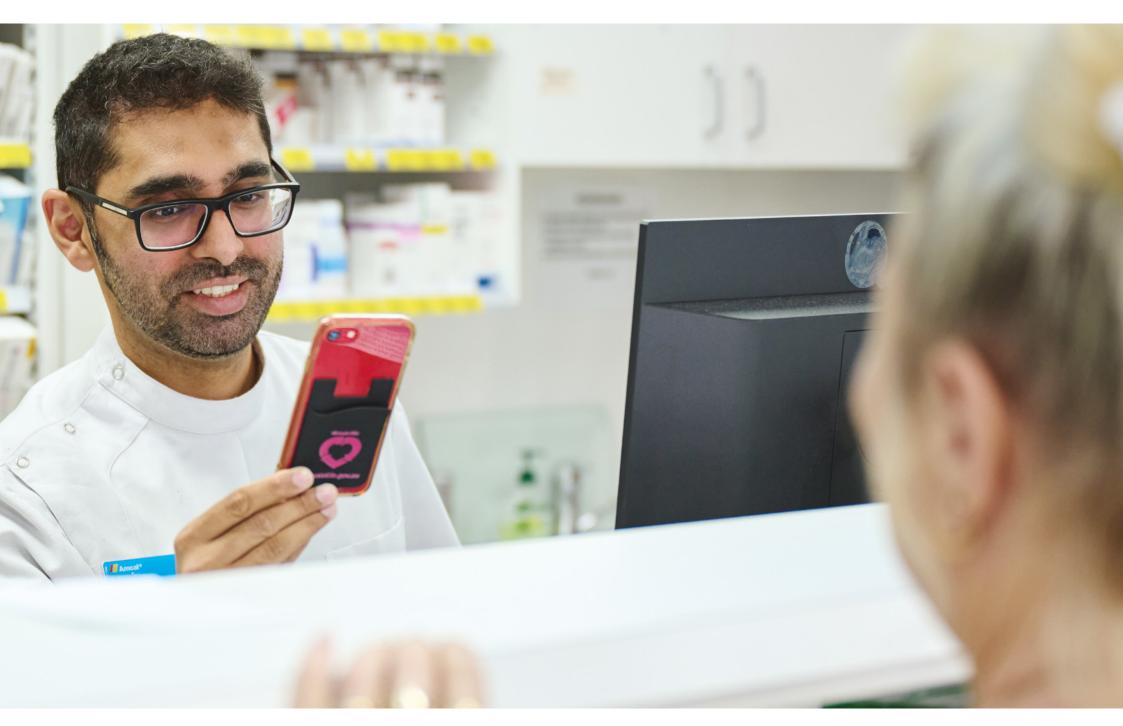

The process improvements in inbound, picking and outbound have been underpinned by a concentrated effort to get closer to customers and be responsive to that feedback. This included a route optimisation program to reduce kilometres travelled and improve tote fill to reduce wastage and improve cost efficiencies.

Over 230 million units distributed during the year.

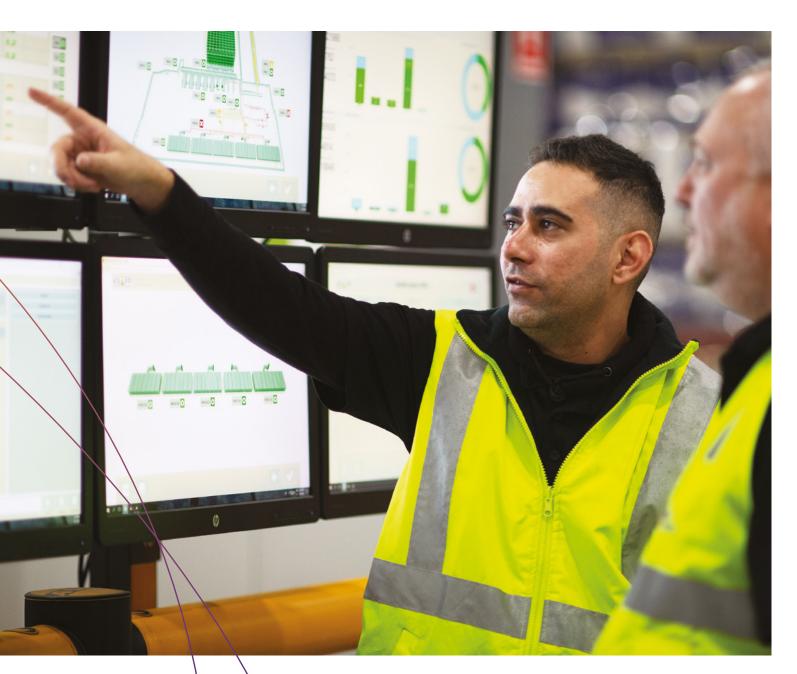

Sigma Healthcare Limited | Annual Review 2022/23

Significant progress has been made on stabilising our systems, removing complexity, divesting non-core assets, and improving processes. This progress has been a key enabler in driving improvement in operational performance, providing a platform to win back the trust and confidence of our customers through consistently delivering customer service excellence.

Sigma Healthcare Logistics/3PL

Utilising Sigma's national distribution network and state of the art facilities we provide warehousing and distribution solutions across the pharmaceutical, medical consumables and fast-moving consumer goods sectors.

We provide customised logistics services from secure temperature controlled facilities to add value to our clients.

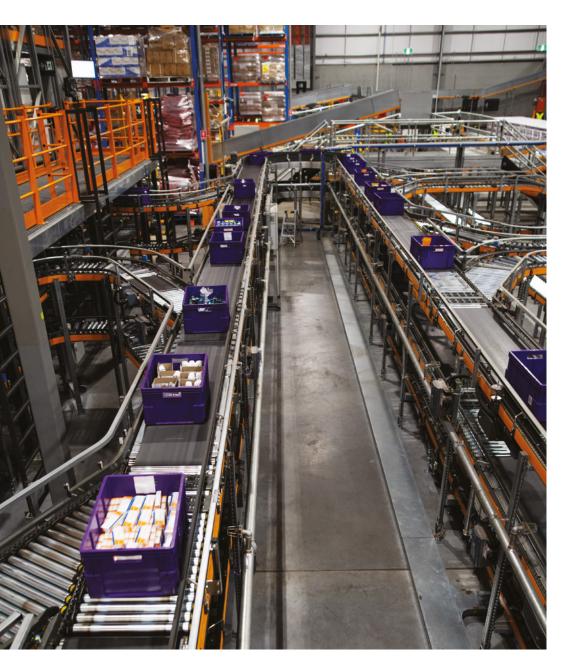

We are currently managing ~30,000 pallets of product for 3PL customers and with the extension of our Melbourne Distribution Centre completed in late 2022, we have added an additional 20,000 pallet capacity.

We have recently extended a major supply contract, and are in active discussions to win new business to increase utilisation.

We have built the capability and capacity to now focus on pursuing growth opportunities in our third party logistics business.

30,000 pallets under management.

Technology

Significant progress has been made over the last 12-months to stabilise and begin optimising our new technology platforms.

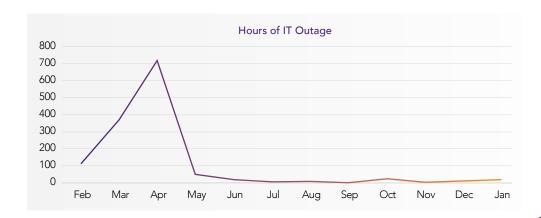

After committing to a total renewal of our ERP system in 2019, which went live in August 2021, we faced significant disruption that impacted our business, our customers and our suppliers. The first six months of the 2023 financial year were concentrated on stabilising our systems. This required additional labour resources and expenditure but was a critical first step to providing a solid platform and experience that our customers could trust long term. Stabilisation was achieved.

The second half of the year saw attention turn to optimising the world class systems now available to us. In this phase, our team have been focused on removing any further roadblocks for customers, making practices and processes more efficient, and improving reporting to enable better decision making. This is advancing at pace.

In addition, we have taken the opportunity to make further improvements across our business to empower our team to make informed decisions and enhance customer service. This has included:

- Completing a total migration of all our Data Centre infrastructure to the cloud and professional external data centres to provide high resilience and security
- Merging Medical Industries Australia (MIA) into Sigma Company Ltd under our corporate S/4 HANA system
- Providing advanced analytics capability to our business through the development of our Data and Analytics platform
- Upgrading our customer facing Sigma Connect platform to enhance its speed and functionality to further improve our services to and access for pharmacy customers.

Progress has been substantial, and the technology platforms are now fully capable of supporting our business and our customers.

MPS Connect

MPS Connect provides essential medication management solutions that help to seamlessly link GPs to pharmacists to individuals in the community and aged care homes, their care staff, and residents. At its core, MPS Connect integrates packing services and Dose Administration Aid (DAA) solutions with documentation and quality control for greater efficiency, quality, and accuracy.

Through the challenges of COVID-19, and the specific impacts it had on aged care residents, MPS Connect has managed to maintain the reliability and quality of service delivery, continue to launch new initiatives, and to grow the business.

Growth has been particularly strong in the Corporate Aged Care facility business, where we have achieved 45% growth in the last 12-months to now be servicing over 260 facilities. Importantly, growth has been achieved whilst maintaining best-in-industry accuracy rates to deliver quality and safety of care to our customers.

An important initiative delivered during the year was the successful launch of MediSphere, our proprietary medication management software solution and Electronic National Residential Medication Charts (eNRMC) medication management software solution. Since being launched in February 2022, prescriber numbers have grown from 5 to almost 350, with over 127,000 prescriptions generated through the platform, which will be integrated with the Government's My Health Record.

The quality of the MediSphere solution was recently recognised, being awarded Silver at the Australian Design Awards 2023.

The 2022 year also saw MPS Connect expand its capability, with the installation of a blister packing machine in NSW to complement the existing sachet packing machine fleet. The provision of choice opened customer channels not previously available to MPS Connect, providing another avenue for growth.

Operationally, MPS Connect achieved 17.5% growth in packed patients over the year whilst overcoming the challenges of supply chain shortages, increased freight charges and labour shortages largely caused by COVID-19 challenges.

Importantly, growth has been achieved whilst maintaining best-in-industry accuracy rates to deliver quality and safety of care to our customers.
