Sigma appoints new Chief Financial Officer

The Board of Sigma is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Jeff Sells as its new Chief Financial Officer.

Sigma Chairman Mr Brian Jamieson said: "We are thrilled to be welcoming Jeff back to Sigma and are pleased that we have been able to attract a high calibre CFO who has a strong understanding of our Company and the industry."

"Jeff's appointment is another critical step forward for Sigma as we continue to rebuild and strengthen the Company in preparation for future success."

Mr Sells has over 20 years experience in financial and commercial management and has most recently been the Chief Financial Officer of Citadel Resource Group Ltd for the last 2 years (ASX: CGG).

Prior to this Mr Sells was the Chief Financial Officer of Oxiana Limited for over 4 years, during which period the company grew rapidly in scale and market capitalisation. During 2002 to 2004 he was the Group Treasurer of Sigma working with Mark Hooper who was then Chief Financial Officer.

Mr Sells has a background in corporate finance and funding, accounting, tax and general management both in Australia and internationally. He is a Chartered Accountant and member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.
